Event 6

A photograph of a desert landscape featuring rolling sand dunes. The dunes are a warm, golden-brown color, and the sky above is a clear, bright blue. The lighting suggests it's either early morning or late afternoon, with soft shadows cast across the sand.

It is a beautiful evening!

The sky is clear, the temperature is perfect, and you are looking forward to having a great time!

The image features a stylized, high-contrast illustration of a cityscape. The foreground is dominated by a large, orange, textured shape that resembles a hand or a large object. The background shows a city with buildings and a blue sky. The word "SUDDENLY" is written in a large, bold, yellow font with a red outline, slanted to the right. Three small yellow squares are positioned to the right of the word, suggesting a continuation or a sequence of events.

Whodunnit?

The A-L-E-R-T-S reporting format was developed by US Army Tactical Intelligence expert Lieutenant Colonel Neil Garra, with the invaluable help of the Senior Dispatcher for the Sierra Vista Police Department, Ms Molly Schmidt.

Two Sierra Vista businesses, Olde Tyme Printing and Design and The S2 Company, partnered to design and produce the initial batch of ALERTS cards.

This presentation was developed by Lieutenant Colonel Neil Garra, US Army, retired.

When in doubt... Report It!!
